4) India is ranked 8th among the countries that are at the highest risk for mass killing in 2022 and 2023

- As per the recent report by the US think tank Early Warning Project, India is ranked 8th among the countries that are at the highest risk for mass killing in 2022 and 2023. India has seen a drop in rank from second position in the earlier year.
- “India’s shift in rank from second to eighth can be most attributed to an improvement in the freedom of movement for men [which is one of the variables used for the analysis],” the report said.

5) ‘Brave Hearts of Bharat, Vignettes from Indian History’

- A book titled ‘Brave Hearts of Bharat, Vignettes from Indian History’ by Vikram Sampath, an anthology of 15 stories of men and women and their indomitable spirit of freedom and courage, was launched in Delhi. The book is published under Penguin publication.
- The book chronicles the stories of courage and determination of few individuals, whose stories largely remained untold and therefore unknown for a long time.

2) International Volunteer Day for Economic and Social Development

- International Volunteer Day for Economic and Social Development is observed on December 5 every year.
- The day is also referred to as International Volunteer Day (IVD) to recognize and promote the tireless work, not just of UN Volunteers, but of volunteers across the globe.
- The international observance was mandated by the United Nations (UN) General Assembly in 1985. The day commemorates 80 countries in the world.

3) World Soil Day

- December 5 is celebrated annually as World Soil Day to highlight the importance of healthy soil and promote sustainable management of soil resources.
- The event aims to raise awareness of the importance of soil quality for human well-being, food security and ecosystems, and events are held at the UN FAO offices and through community based events.
- The day was first considered by the International Union of Soil Sciences in 2002, but was not officially endorsed by FAO until 2013.
