Indian Hockey Stars Harmanpreet Singh and PR Sreejesh Receive Prestigious FIH Awards

- In a significant achievement for Indian hockey, Harmanpreet Singh, the captain of the Indian men's hockey team, has been awarded the FIH Player of the Year 2024 title, while legendary goalkeeper PR Sreejesh has been named FIH Goalkeeper of the Year. These prestigious awards were presented during the 49th FIH Statutory Congress held in Oman on November 8, 2024.

Harmanpreet Singh's Triumph:

- Harmanpreet Singh stood out as the Player of the Year 2024, earning the highest number of votes across all categories, including from national team captains, coaches, media, and fans. The recognition comes after his stellar performance at the Paris 2024 Olympics, where he led India to a bronze medal finish, scoring 10 goals during the tournament. Notably, Harmanpreet scored in crucial matches, including the quarterfinals, semifinals, and in the bronze medal match against Spain, where India won 2-1.
- This marks Harmanpreet's third FIH Player of the Year award, having previously won it in the 2020-21 and 2021-22 seasons. His leadership was instrumental in India's success, and this award holds special significance as it marks his first year as captain of the national team, a role he assumed in 2023.

Q. Who was named the FIH Player of the Year 2024, and who won the FIH Goalkeeper of the Year award in the men's category? Harmanpreet Singh and PR Sreejesh
